

We are proud to announce that Rita Edmond has been selected as a Los Angeles County Arts Commission musician. The Musicians Roster primarily serves as a resource for Presenters of Free Concerts in Public Sites. A variety of rich and diverse talent is available.

The Commission promotes and supports excellence, diversity, vitality, understanding and accessibility of the arts in Los Angeles County. The Commission provides information and resources for the community, artists, educators, arts organizations and authorities alike.

Look for Rita Edmond to bring her talent to the public and community stages of Los Angeles County!
